

FOREVER FAITHFUL

From the first time I saw you, so weak and so thin,
So tired and frightened, Sores all over your skin.

I tried to get near you,
But you were too scared.

I wanted to show you, Just how much I cared.

I fed you each day, and I knew that I must,
Get closer to you, to earn your trust.

I cried at the sight.

You were all skin and bone.

I told you I'd save you, take you into my home.

I finally had you, though it took 3 weeks.

The vet spoke to me, said your future was bleak.

You were so ill

and your spirit broken.

I held you and wept, while the vets words were spoken.

The first 2 days tired, you just lay in your bed.
Couldn't stand by yourself... Couldn't lift your own head.
I carried you safely,
Onto my knee
You were frightened at first... Your fear I could see.

I taught you to hug, by my side you would lay,
I taught you to trust, I taught you to play.
Your spirit revived,
I could see in your face....
Trusting and your Hopeful, so I called you 'Faith'

One year has passed by, you proved everyone wrong.
You weren't ready to die, on this earth you belong.
You now know what Love is,
This is clear to see.
I thought I would teach you... But you taught me.

Author - Helen Davis